

Abrantes

Being proud of its rich past and a vast patrimony of great quality, Abrantes is a city which combines the traditions of the past with the future.

Situated on the route of the great national and foreign accessibilities, Abrantes region presents a great tourist potential with special prominence for the Historical Centre of the city itself.

Abrantes has numerous valuable monuments (with the Castle to the head, the Churches and the Squares) and a special vocation for the cult of the flower (that the heading of Flowery City of Portugal confers it).
