

Quinta do Cabeçote

ID: ATR013

“Quinta do Cabeçote” is a farm in a very small village called Cabeço de Vide in Alentejo.

This village looks like time didn't pass during the last centuries, everything still moves slower around you giving you a chance to enjoy a peaceful time in Alentejo. In case you prefer a bit more of action during your holidays you can always enjoy multiple activities available around Cabeço de Vide like participating in the thematic walks organized in the region or go to see and learn about falcons; how do they live, behave and how to train them. Alentejo is known for its special and delicious wines, so it can also be interesting to participate in a wine prove. Other interesting things you could do in Cabeço de Vide is to visit the multiple stables and discover the beauty of the Latin horses and enjoy the trainings. In Cabeço de Vide you can hunt and fish, you can ride a bicycle or practice motor or jeep races on ruff grounds.

“Quinta do Cabeçote” farm has five bedrooms for rent. One has two single beds and the other four have a double bed. Each bedroom is unique; each one of them is decorated differently from the others. All the furniture and tiles used in the bedrooms were hand made and all the details were carefully taken in consideration. Besides the bedrooms the house also has a beautiful living-room traditionally decorated with a huge mill inside. The house also has a beautiful dining-room connected with the living area and a kitchen which might be useful in case you want your meals to be served in the cozy ambience of "your own" dining-room. Meals are also served in another big room specially reserved for this purpose. This big dining-room is situated in front of the beautiful swimming pool and it can also be rented for meetings or parties.

Besides the bedrooms and the collective dining and living-room the farm has two apartments for rent. The apartments are situated in an independent building and they are perfect for one family. Each apartment has a bedroom a living-room and complete bathroom. Both apartments are carefully furnished, just like the rooms in the main building, and they are completely equipped for the most demanding needs.

Breakfast is served daily with genuine fresh products from the farm and the region. The owner is always very proud to let you taste his best compote, cheese, ham, cake, bread... as well as to make your stay the most comfortable and amusing as possible.
