

Quinta do Valle

ID: ATR006

"Quinta de Santa Ana da Guerreira" (Valle) was built in 1550 - the same year that it's founder built the Valle's Chapel in Santa Iria's convent in Tomar- and it has been owned by that family ever since.

The farm is composed by a very interesting group of buildings with great architectural quality. Along the years the farm has been adapting to new demands and needs but always maintaining its sublime elegance and beauty.

The farm landscape is characteristic to Ribatejo region (the centre of Portugal) as it transports visitors back in time to its founding by the Templar so many centuries ago...It makes you travel in time.

The farm has 7 apartments for rent; all recovered from the existing original farm buildings. Each apartment is decorated with great simplicity and taste which gives the spaces a refined touch. They all have a fire place in the living room as well as a kitchenette, bathroom and T.V.

For the ones who like water sports the farm offers boating facilities. If you prefer to enjoy the surroundings and the beautiful woods you can also make use of the farm horses and go for a ride. The magnificent swimming-pool is also essential to cool you down in those hot summer days.

A magnificent room in Quinta do Valle can also be rented for business meetings, and symposiums or parties. Here you can expect the best quality of service combined with a pleasant relaxed atmosphere.

Placed in the centre of Portugal, "Quinta do Valle" is a special place which combines history and tradition with modern needs thus being the perfect place to enjoy Ribatejo's life style with refined elegancy.
